

Join the Kootenai Metropolitan Planning Organization Kootenai County Area Transportation Team (KCATT)

Kootenai Metropolitan Planning Organization (KMPO) invites Kootenai County residents to apply to serve on its Kootenai County Area Transportation Team, which meets monthly on the fourth Tuesday of the month from 8:00 to 9:30 a.m. Each public non-voting member is appointed by the KMPO Board for a two-year term. Up to five (5) non-voting members representing various types of transportation interest will be selected for the open positions.

The mission of KMPO is to plan, program and help to deliver transportation plans, programs and projects that expand access and improve mobility in order to foster a vibrant and livable Kootenai County. As a committee created by KMPO, KCATT makes recommendations to the KMPO Board; keeps a close eye on upcoming transportation improvements; and engages with project sponsors and community members in a proactive and productive manner.

Membership requirements:

- 1) Non-voting members must be Kootenai County residents

- 2) Up to five (5) non-voting members of the general public may appointed by the KMPO Board to represent a wide range of transportation interests such as:
  - Aviation
  - Rail
  - Bicycle
  - Pedestrian
  - Public Transportation
  - Trucking
  - Freight logistics
  - Warehousing
  - Transportation Safety and Security
  - Enforcement
