In 1992, the Idaho Legislature established the Idaho Housing Trust Fund to assist local cities deal with workforce housing. The Trust Fund was never funded. Many other states have similar Trust Funds operating with funding provided by a portion of the recording fees paid when titled are transferred. Other states have a fee charged when a property sells to fund the Trust Fund. The Fund exists in Idaho, we need our local Legislators to get behind a funding mechanism.

Will this document be uploaded to the website? And if not, could I possibly get a copy?

From Donna Brundage to Everyone: 03:26 PM

I as well.

From Barb Neal - HLWA to Everyone: 03:27 PM

Can you please explain how the City of Sandpoint assisted Schweitzer in purchasing the assisted living center?

From Me to All Panelists: 03:27 PM

We can definitely look at uploading it to the website -- particularly when it is finished. Are you interested in the outline being provided here?

From Jan Studer to Everyone: 03:29 PM

website address again please and thank you

From Barb Neal - HLWA to Everyone: 03:30 PM

Yes, makes sense.

From Me to Everyone: 03:31 PM

Here is the website address again: <https://www.kmpo.net/regional-housing-growth-issues-partnership/>

From Steven Adams, City of Rathdrum, Council Member to All Panelists: 03:34 PM

I cannot vote. Perhaps I am not allowed.

From KIKI MILLER, City of CDA, Council Member to All Panelists: 03:36 PM

Panelists are not voters

From Jan Studer to Everyone: 03:42 PM

Oh yes, the website address is at the bottom of the Agenda, too. Thanks.
